CAPITULO 1

Ejercicios preparatorios para el piano latino

En este capítulo aprenderemos un completo conjunto de ejercicios para el piano latino.

Para tocar el piano latino necesitamos en nuestros dedos independencia, agilidad, rapidez y principalmente disociación. Es como estudiar piano clásico pero con la particularidad que tiene la música latina.

Para estudiar estos ejercicios siga los siguientes pasos:

- Escuche cada ejercicio las veces necesarias hasta entenderlo perfectamente
- Esté seguro de entender todos los símbolos de la partitura
- Practique sin tocar aun, el tiempo de las figuras
- Estudie cada mano independientemente
- Finalmente cuando usted toque cada mano independientemente de manera perfecta, entonces toque con las dos al tiempo
- Empiece estudiando lentamente, luego acelere hasta llegar al tiempo deseado.

Figuras para improvisar en el piano latino

En este capítulo aprenderemos varias frases de improvisación para el piano latino.

Estas frases nos ayudarán a crear completas sesiones de improvisación. Podemos combinarlas, hacer variaciones sobre ellas, tocarlas en otra tonalidad y añadirle nuestras propias frases para crear una impresionante improvisación.

Te aconsejamos escuchar las improvisaciones de los pianistas latinos famosos, así aprenderás como usar todos estos conocimientos en tus canciones latinas.

Para estudiar estas frases siga los siguientes pasos:

- Escuche cada frase las veces necesarias hasta entenderla perfectamente
- Esté seguro de entender todos los símbolos de la partitura
- Practique sin tocar aun, el tiempo de las figuras
- Estudie cada mano independientemente
- Finalmente cuando usted toque cada mano independientemente de manera perfecta, entonces toque con las dos al tiempo
- Empiece estudiando lentamente, luego acelere hasta llegar al tiempo deseado.

CAPITULO 4

El efecto "TRUENO"

En este capítulo aprenderemos un efecto utilizado por los grandes pianistas.

Cuando hablamos de efectos, significan acciones distintas al montuno de la canción que se usan para darle mas riqueza al acompañamiento del piano. Es importante saber utilizarlos pues un exceso de ellos puede convertir nuestro acompañamiento en desagradable.

EL EFECTO "TRUENO"

Es utilizado cuando toda la orquesta pasa de una parte suave a una parte fuerte y el piano con este efecto crea una perfecta preparación para el cambio de dinámica en la canción.

Para hacer este efecto basta con golpear entre 4 y 6 notas graves del piano con la mano izquierda, al tiempo que hacemos un glisado ascendente con la mano derecha, todo esto con el pedal de sustain hundido.

Se debe tener cuidado al terminar el glisado pues en ese momento debemos retomar nuevamente el montuno de la canción, obviamente en cooperación con el tiempo y el ritmo que llevemos.

La mejor forma de entender este efecto es escuchándolo, así que en el audio que va a ver, hay que escuchar el track "THUNDER EFFECT".

Ahora trataremos de escribir este efecto en partitura para que se entienda mejor.

Thunder Effect

Es importante decir que:

- Este efecto es bueno aplicarlo una o dos veces máximo en una misma canción
- Se puede alternar con glisado descendente, ya sea solo o con el golpe a las teclas graves también
- No interesa la tonalidad, el efecto es el mismo, aunque si por ejemplo estamos tocando en F# entonces el golpe a las teclas graves puede ser a las teclas negras para que entonces vaya mejor con la tonalidad
- Recuerde que primero debe escucharlo y entenderlo bien antes de aplicarlo en una canción real

CAPITULO 5 JAMIN ATON

Practicando sobre las pistas de

orquesta

Lo más importante cuando tocamos música latina en el piano es la práctica. Es la única forma de adquirir el sabor que este tipo de música requiere.

Ya debes haber bajado el audio y con el las siguientes pistas:

ORCHESTRA1.MP3

ORCHESTRA2.MP3

ORCHESTRA3.MP3

Las pistas con orquesta que has bajado te servirán como soporte para que practiques todo lo aprendido en este método.

Simplemente debes escoger la pista que más se acomode al montuno o la figura de improvisación que estas estudiando y practicando y tocarlo tantas veces como quieras.

Para los montunos puedes por ejemplo, tocar el montuno con la mano derecha y hacer los bajos con la mano izquierda. Esa forma de tocar se denomina TUMBAO.

Así que a practicar!

NOTA FINAL

Antes de estudiar o practicar debes hacer primero los ejercicios preparatorios, esto es como un calentamiento previo para los dedos.

Recuerda practicar cada montuno y figura en todas las tonalidades.

Utiliza el efecto "trueno" para que aprendas a hacerlo correctamente.

Haz uso de las pistas de orquesta para practicar.

Escucha mucha música latina, en especial los montunos y solos de piano.

Baja midis de salsa, merengue, son y más ritmos latinos y analiza la parte del piano.

Mucha suerte en tu estudio!

INSTRUCCIONES PARA BAJAR EL AUDIO

Necesitas de:

Conexion a internet

Un programa explorador (Internet Explorer, Netscape, etc.)

El programa de compresión y descompresión WINZIP

A continuación te explicamos los pasos para bajar el audio que hace parte de este método.

- Abre algún explorador de internet (Internet Explorer, Netscape, etc.)

- Copia la siguiente direccion en la barra de direcciones y enter:

www.geocities.com/luisluzes/archi/down/bajar/lulu/metlatin/METH_LAT_A.zip

- Le dices guardar y luego donde lo quieres guardar
- Luego de bajado este archivo ZIP, lo abres y le dices EXTRAER
- Te pedirá un password que es: plijygrdwa123654
- Allí te extraerá otro archivo ZIP, lo abres y le dices EXTRAER
- Te pedirá otro password que es: okuhtfesq789456
- Ya habrás bajado entonces todo el audio del método!
